Introduction

The statistics presented in this chapter consist of statistical information on different presidential rounds, the number of electorates and the number of voters in various presidential, the Islamic Consultative Assembly, Islamic City, and Village Councils election rounds as well as information on the foreign diplomatic missions in Iran.

The first political statistics on the government's diplomatic missions in various countries, the number of valid treaties signed with other governments, and the number of National Consultative Assembly members have been collected since the year 1348 from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Institute for Social Studies and Researches, National Consultative Assembly and Ministry of the Interior. These data have been included in the Iran Statistical Yearbook. Moreover, dissemination of these data continued until the year 1357. After the victory of the Islamic Revolution (in the year 1357), the data on different diplomatic missions of the Islamic Republic of Iran in various countries, the foreign diplomatic missions in Iran, international organizations in which Iran is a member, the list of the ratifications of the Islamic Consultative Assembly and the list of bills and plans not approved by the Islamic Consultative Assembly, etc. would be collected and disseminated and also included in the Statistical Yearbook till the year 1362. After that year, as a result of continuous follow-ups, the information on political affairs was published in a separate chapter in the Yearbook in a centralized manner. The statistics on this chapter were collected from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of the Interior and have appeared in the Statistical Yearbook since the year 1387.

Concepts and definitions

Diplomatic mission: refers to embassies consulate generals and (permanent) missions to the international organizations as well as the interests sections in the foreign countries.

Honorary consulates: due to distance or the absence of an embassy or consulate general in a country and for convenient access of clients or saving the time and costs of nationals, honorary consulate acts as the liaison between the embassy or consulate general and the nationals of the country to coordinate the consular affairs.

Selected information

From the year 1358 to the year 1396, there were twelve presidential election rounds in the Islamic Republic of Iran. The percentage of public participation in the twelfth presidential election was about 73 percent.

The Islamic Consultative Assembly comprises 284 members in the eleventh round, out of which 268 representatives were male and 16 were female. A number of 284 representatives hold bachelor's and higher degrees. In the fifth round of the election of the Islamic City and Rural Council, 125883 persons were elected, out of which 121859 persons were male and the rest (4024 persons) was female.

In the year 1398, out of the world countries, 105 countries had diplomatic missions in Iran (stationed in Tehran), out of which 11 countries had consulate general and or honorary consulate in other cities in addition to capital Tehran.
